KEYNOTE SPEAKER: STEPHEN MCCUTCHAN

After serving three churches in the pastoral ministry for 38 years, Steve focuses his energies in retirement on developing resources to nurture and support the health of clergy. He leads workshops on clergy health and maintains a weekly blog reflecting on the life of clergy, www.smccutchan.com. He has written ten books including a three-volume devotional for pastors based on the Revised Common Lectionary and an award-winning book on using the Psalms in ministry. In 2013 he published a mystery novel, A Star and A Tear, and three volumes of short stories about various experiences of clergy life available on Amazon. He is currently working on a series of books under the theme Healthy Clergy Make Healthy Congregations that will include Rediscovering the Company of Pastors, An Interim's Gift to Congregations, and God Laughs, Why Don't You?
